VERBAL DESCRIPTION:

Foot and ankle, with rattles or bells around ankle, from large modeled censer. Foot missing 3rd and 4th toes. Piece broken from something larger: break marks are around foot and above ridge above rattles. One piece of preserved portion also cracked, but can be glued back in. Item seems to be made with layers, especially on the exterior, as though a rough shape was made, and the details were made by layering clay over the simpler form. Drawing on graph paper.

Core present in broken areas. Sole of foot darkened slightly, and the bottom of the small toe. Foot open at bottom, i. e., hollow
